Alberta team wins gold at the 2007 Elks nationals

More dart history occurred this past week when the 2007 Alberta Team competed at the 2007 Elks/Royal Purple Nationals held from May 22 to 26, 2007 in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan. The Alberta Elks/Royal Purple Team earned the Grand Aggregate Gold Medal for the first time.

Similar to the NDFC National Championships, points are earned by all competitors in all of the events – the ultimate team effort!

The team individually took home an additional 10 medals; 4 Gold, 3 Silver and 3 Bronze in the following events:

- Gold in the Team Grand Aggregate
- Gold in Men's Doubles: Aarron Hindman, Ron McLeod
- Gold in Mixed Doubles: Aarron Hindman, Lana Krakowski
- Gold in Women's 4-Person: Lana Krakowski, Sheron Ruffell, Lil Skears, Shirley Burroughs
- Silver in Mixed Doubles: Jeff Essex, Sheron Ruffell
- Silver in Mixed Triples: Aarron Hindman, Ron McLeod, Lil Skears
- Silver in Women's Singles: Lana Krakowski
- Bronze in Men's Doubles: Jeff Essex, Chris Hatton
- Bronze in Women's Doubles: Lana Krakowski, Sheron Ruffell
- Bronze in Women's Singles: Sheron Ruffell

Through our Annual Sport Grant from Alberta Sport, Parks, Recreation and Wildlife Foundation, it is one of Darts Alberta's objective to assist intermediate level athletes to compete at a higher level of competition. Darts Alberta provided partial financial assistance to all Darts Alberta members that applied for and were eligible for grant funding.

Congratulations to the Alberta Elks and Royal Purple Provincial Team!
