Dart volunteer, Sandi Orr, receives provincial sport award

Bi-annually, the Alberta Sport Parks Recreation and Wildlife Foundation recognizes volunteers who have, through their commitment and dedication, advanced the development of sport in Alberta. The recipients are selected based on their outstanding contributions at the community or municipal level through a personal commitment to sport development, a consistent and continuous record of service to the public, and community leadership in sport.

Darts Alberta is proud to extend our special congratulations to Sandi Orr on being recognized as one of Alberta's outstanding volunteers in sport. The award was presented at the 2007 Alberta Sport Summit held in Banff on Friday, April 13, 2007.

As the President of Darts Alberta, I was extremely proud to be in attendance at this prestigious awards ceremony and to be able to share in recognizing an individual with such passion and dedication to our sport.

Involved with the sport of darts since 1987, Sandi has made an outstanding and significant contribution on a provincial, national and international level. She has coached at numerous national and international events as well as officiated at various national and provincial events. Sandi lead the project team responsible for developing a coaching program, now recognized by the NDFC. As Darts Alberta's learning facilitator, she has trained the first-ever accredited coaches in Canada for the sport. We are fortunate to have her as a member of our Executive.

Congratulations Sandi on earning this well-deserved recognition from Alberta Sport.
